There is only one widow having, the memorialist. Her chief object seems to be to get her son in law promoted to higher service. This may be considered & disposed of on merits when there is an opportunity. The Dy Comdr is a graduate & is well spoken of.

3 Scholarships have already been granted to 3 of the memorialists' sons.

The late Mr Abdul Rahman K.B appears to have left more than a lakh of rupees worth of property. The widow & her children are not so badly off as to be thrown on the generosity of the State. From the manner in which the request is made she does not appear to be serious about it. It is a casual

Submitted to His Highness.

This is a memorial from the widow of the late Mr.Abdul Rahiman, Khan Bahadur, Member of the Council, praying for a pension for herself and for the advancement in service of her son-in-law, Mahomed Peer, Deputy Amildar of Harihar.

A detailed account of the late Mr.Abdul Rahiman's family is contained in Mr.B.K.Venkata Varada Iyengar's note dated 8th February 1905. It will be seen therefrom that the late Mr.Abdul Rahiman left house property in Bangalore valued at one lac of rupees besides about 15 thousand rupees in cash. Three of the memorialist's sons have been granted scholarships of Rs30 each per mensem. In these circumstances I do not think that any further concessions are called for.

The case of the memorialist's son-in-law will be noted and considered on its merits.

To

His Gracious Highness

Sri Krishna Raja Wodayar, Bahadur,

G. C. I. E.

Your Gracious Highness,

The humble memorial of the widow of the late councillor Khan Bahadur Md. Abdul Rahman most respectfully showeth.

That your memorialist's family which very recently enjoyed great official distinction and popular esteem, is at present labouring under adverse circumstances. The husband of your memorialist retired after a distinguished career under your Highness's Govt. and expired suddenly soon after, leaving a large family behind him. His brother Abdul Aziz, Extra Asst. Commr., was also made to retire a few years later. Of the younger members of the family two promising sons of your memorialist, first Abdul Jaleel, Amildar, who was about to be promoted to the Asst. Commr's. grade, second Abdul Kareem, who had been lately appointed as Police Head Munshi in the Tumkur Dist., were both cut off in their prime recently by the cruel hands of death at a time when their support to the family was indispensable. Thus a series of sad calamities have worked to remove all the elderly members of the family one after another, leaving your memorialist and her young children unprotected. In these circumstances, with a heart full of gratitude to your Highness for your Highness's noble act of charity in conferring liberal scholarships upon her three young children without which their education according to their Station in life would have been impossible, your memorialist begs to bring to your Highness's kind notice the case of her son-in-law Mohamed Peer who is a graduate and who for the past three years has been working as Deputy Amildar of Harihar. Instances are not wanting in which your Highness's Govt. have been pleased to start in service as Prob Asst. Supdts. of Police, (Mr. Aga Jan's Son) and Prob. Extra Asst. Commrs. (Mr. Thumboo Chettyar's sons and Mr. Tajpeeran), young men of known respectability and high official connection.

Rev 12.7.06

Your memorialist therefore respectfully begs that a similar concession may be kindly shown to her son-in-law which will be of great help to the family. 1

4267-06 1

Your memorialist further begs to bring to your Highness's gracious notice her own case and humbly requests that a pension may be granted to her, as has been done in several other instances. 2

Should your memorialist be so fortunate as to have her prayer granted, she would as in duty bound for ever pray.

Begs to remain,
Your Gracious Highness's most loyal and faithful subject,

Widow of the late
MR. ABDUL RAHMAN SAHEB, K. B.,
Member of the Mysore State Council.
